

Margaret "Margie" Hunt, MS, LAT, ATC

Current Position

Senior Instructor and Clinical Education Coordinator
MS Athletic Training Program
University of Colorado Colorado Springs

Education

1991: Master of Science in Physical Education	Syracuse University
1989: Bachelor of Science in Physical Education Concentration: Athletic Training	University of Iowa

Margie worked as a collegiate athletic trainer at Marquette University before moving to Colorado to work with the United States Olympic Committee (USOC). After seven years as a staff athletic trainer with the USOC, Hunt became the Head Athletic Trainer for the Colorado Springs US Olympic Training Center campus, later transitioning to a Manager role in the Sports Medicine and Sport Performance Divisions. During her nearly 20-year tenure with the United States Olympic Committee, Hunt served as an athletic trainer for Team USA in multiple international events including five Olympic Games and two Paralympic Games.

In 2013 Hunt moved from the clinical to the academic setting, working as an instructor at the University of Colorado Colorado Springs (UCCS). Hunt currently instructs primarily in the CAATE accredited Master of Science in Athletic Training program and serves as the Clinical Education Coordinator.

Margie's strengths include clinical practice, leading teams of providers to improve delivery of care and health outcomes and developing learning opportunities for students and peers. Margie enjoys utilizing her strengths in service opportunities. She has previously served as a BOC exam model and administrator and as the CATA board secretary from 1999-2005. In her spare time, she works as an athletic trainer with various Olympic and Paralympic sport National Governing Bodies (NGB) and volunteers with community organizations.

When not busy with athletic training, Margie can be found enjoying the outdoors and spending time with her husband, Steve, and their grown children.
